Product Description

This massage cream for the cosmetic treatment of cellulite has been designed for use as a complementary aid in cellulite beauty therapy. It is a soft product that is easy to use and performs its major functions thanks to the balanced use of natural substances. Use: Apply the cream massaging gently. About Cellulite Its name makes it sound like a medical condition. But cellulite is nothing more than normal fat beneath the skin. The fat appears bumpy because it pushes against connective tissue, causing the skin above it to pucker. Cellulite isn't harmful. Many people, though, would like to get rid of it because of the way it looks. Having cellulite doesn't mean you are overweight. Even thin people can have it. If you are overweight, however, losing weight may reduce cellulite. Cellulite is more common among women than men. If other women in your family have cellulite, there's a good chance you will too. It is unclear why some people develop cellulite and others do not. The following risk factors are thought to play a role:

- Genetics: Certain genes linked with metabolism, circulation, fat distribution, and hormone levels may make people more likely to develop cellulite.
- Age: The skin loses some of its elasticity and flexibility as it ages, which can worsen the appearance of skin dimples and sagging.
- Hormones: The release and balance of hormones such as estrogen, insulin, thyroid hormones, prolactin, and norepinephrine may play an important role in cellulite development.
- Diet: An unbalanced diet that is high in fat and low in fiber may worsen the appearance of cellulite by adding to the fatty deposits beneath the skin.
- Lifestyle: Lack of exercise and weight gain may add to the worsening appearance of cellulite. However, cellulite can develop in people who get plenty of exercise who are of normal weight. Other lifestyle factors such as inadequate fluid intake, smoking, and high stress levels may also aid the development of cellulite.

How to cure Cellulite Nowadays there are many cures to reduce cellulite. The most popular and effective are creams and salon treatments such as massages and other treatments specifically directed to improve the "orange peel" effect appearance. Kit includes

1. Anti Cellulite Slimming Shapewear with Tourmaline Effect, Material: 45% Polyamide, 43% Polyester, 12% Elastane; Fits for sizes S and M.
2. Profskin Cellulite Reducing Cream 500ml
3. Profskin Firming Body Cream 500ml
4. Profskin Mud Plus Thermal Cream 500ml
